

Invitation

SEMINAR: Minimum wage for foreign truck drivers in Germany since 2015

The German-Baltic Chamber of Commerce (AHK) in cooperation with its premium member bnt attorneys-at-law would like to invite you to a seminar.

Special TARGET GROUPS of the seminar: companies and unions linked to logistics and transportation.

TIME: Friday, 06.03.2015, from 09:30-11:30

PLACE: AHK, Suurtüki 4b (seminar room), Tallinn

LANGUAGE: English

TOPIC: Since 01.01.2015 a minimum wage of 8,50 € took effect in Germany. Currently this minimum wage is not only meant for the employees, who are working in Germany permanently, but also for them, who are working there only temporarily. This also concerns the foreign truck drivers, who, just for a short period of time, are driving through the German state. Who does not follow the rule of the minimum wage, are threatened with very high monetary fines.

TOPICS OF THE SEMINAR:

- Reach in the logistics industry
- Current discussion in the politics
- Obligatory registration, record requirements, needed documentation

PROGRAM:

- 09:30 – 10:00 registration
- 10:00 – 11:00 lecture
- 11:00 – 11:30 Q & A

LECTURER: The seminar is conducted by the German lawyer Sebastian Harschneck from bnt attorneys-at-law. Mr. Harschneck is currently advising many companies and unions, which are belonging into the transport and logistics industry. He is a specialist in the current minimum wage topic in Germany.

PRICE & REGISTRATION: AHK members free of charge, non-members 15 €* per capita. Please register yourself until 03.03.2015 via E-mail: mitglieder.ee@ahk-balt.org or phone +372 6276 940.

Best regards
German-Baltic Chamber of Commerce

*After registration a cancellation free of charge will be accepted until 03.03.2015.

